A Little Kindness Can Go a Long Way

Once there was a little kangaroo named Ali. She spent her days bouncing around the Australian bush in her mum's pouch where she was always safe.

Sometimes, when she was feeling particularly adventurous, she would carefully climb out and have hopping races with her friends or patiently listen while her mum taught her how to find the juiciest grasses to nibble.

But soon enough, she would always return to her mum's pouch.

How wonderful she felt in there.

No matter how scary the big, strange world was, Ali would always fall asleep in this special place made just for her.

She was sure that her mum's pouch was the softest place in the world and if she curled up just right, she could feel her mum's heartbeat lull her into sleep, especially on the really hot days when mum would lay in the shade and there was nothing to do but enjoy the most perfect place in the world.
